

MISSIONAIRE

Preparing People and Aircraft for Mission Service Throughout the World

2015 Annual Inspection

It takes teamwork to succeed – here are a few highlights of what you have helped us accomplish in 2015...

We welcomed two new students into the Missionary Aviation Training Program. Pray for Josh and Liz as they learn.

Two students are in final stages of preparation to take their FAA licensure exams. Pray for Alex and Mathew as they prepare for their exams.

Missionaire expanded, and is now offering maintenance training at the Winchester Airport and flight training at the Franklin County/Sewanee Airport. By taking over management of the Sewanee location, Missionaire benefits from the additional funding this provides.

In keeping with our purpose and goal of community outreach, an aviation class was started by Missionaire for students at the University of the South in Sewanee. This endeavor has already “primed the pump” for future missionary aviators. Elizabeth, a physics junior, discovered Missionaire after signing up for the aviation class last fall. She happens to have a passion for aviation and mission service. She happens to be a missionary kid whose family serves in Kenya (they happen to know the Blohm family, former trainees at Missionaire who are now serving in Nairobi with AIM AIR). Elizabeth applied and has been accepted into Missionaire’s program. She is seeking the Lord for leading, timing, and resources. Pray for Elizabeth in her new journey.

It’s back! Those who have partnered with Missionaire for more than two decades might remember Piper Cherokee N5154W pictured at left. Back in the 1990’s, the use of this aircraft was generously donated by a long-time friend and supporter, Jerry Brekke, of Colorado. It trained many student pilots, as well as provided opportunities for maintenance experience. In July, Jerry donated N5154W to Missionaire, where it will continue to train students for mission service. Thank you, Jerry!

A future missionary aviator? Below, Kaelyn Foote (5) is thoroughly impressed after her first airplane ride with her daddy, Allan Foote, Missionaire’s General Manager. She was ready to go up again, not “tomorrow” but “now!”

2015 Financial Report

A complete financial statement for Missionaire will be available by March 1, 2016.

Thank you for praying, encouraging, and giving!

Whatever you do, do your work heartily, as for the Lord rather than for men...
